Combat Networks welcomes new CEO to the Executive Team

Toronto, Ontario – April 22, 2020 – Combat Networks Inc. is pleased to welcome Christopher Emery to its senior leadership team as the new Chief Executive Officer. Christopher succeeds the founder of Combat Networks Inc, Rob Finucan who remains at the company as a Board Member and Executive Director.

Christopher brings decades of senior telecom leadership experience including a Corporate Strategy and Planning role at Rogers Communications, and Sales Management roles at Cisco Systems. He also served in engineering, product management and sales roles at Nortel Networks and at Bell Canada, prior to that.

Chris holds an MBA from the Ivey School of Business, Western University and a diploma in Applied Science from Loyalist College.

Combat Networks is a Canadian network solutions integrator focused on mission-critical enterprise networks for public and private organizations where security, performance and reliability are the key to the operating mission.
